One of the quickest and easiest ways to boost your confidence is to fake it and believe that consistency is a virtue in the Senate, and as a matter of consistency include both of these.

The depression of the 1930s did not begin with the crash of 29.